Lake Orta, sacred heritage & Italian design

Private lake moments, timeless heritage and the icons of Italian creativity.

Begin with a private boat journey across Lake Orta, and stop at San Giulio Island to explore its quiet lanes and Romanesque Basilica with a dedicated guide. Continue to Sacro Monte di Orta, where a guided walk reveals its chapels and panoramic lake views. Lunch at Villa Crespi may complete the experience, subject to reservation.

In the afternoon, a visit to Museo Alessi in Omegna may be arranged, introducing the brand behind coffee makers that have become icons of Italian design. Alternatively, enjoy a guided e-bike adventure around Mottarone, following a route suited to your interests and riding ability.

Ghemme, Gattinara and northern piedmont wines

Nebbiolo, craftsmanship and contemporary culture in the hills of northern Piedmont.

Journey into the wine country of northern Piedmont to discover Ghemme and Gattinara through winery visits and tastings arranged in advance. These distinctive Nebbiolo-based DOCG wines are prized for their elegance and ageing potential, expressing the different character of Ghemme's glacial soils and Gattinara's volcanic terrain.

Alternatively, head to Biella for a visit to Cittadellarte – Fondazione Pistoletto, exploring the relationship between contemporary art, creativity and the area's industrial heritage. Where available, a visit to a local wool mill or textile atelier may be arranged on request, offering a closer look at Biella's craftsmanship.

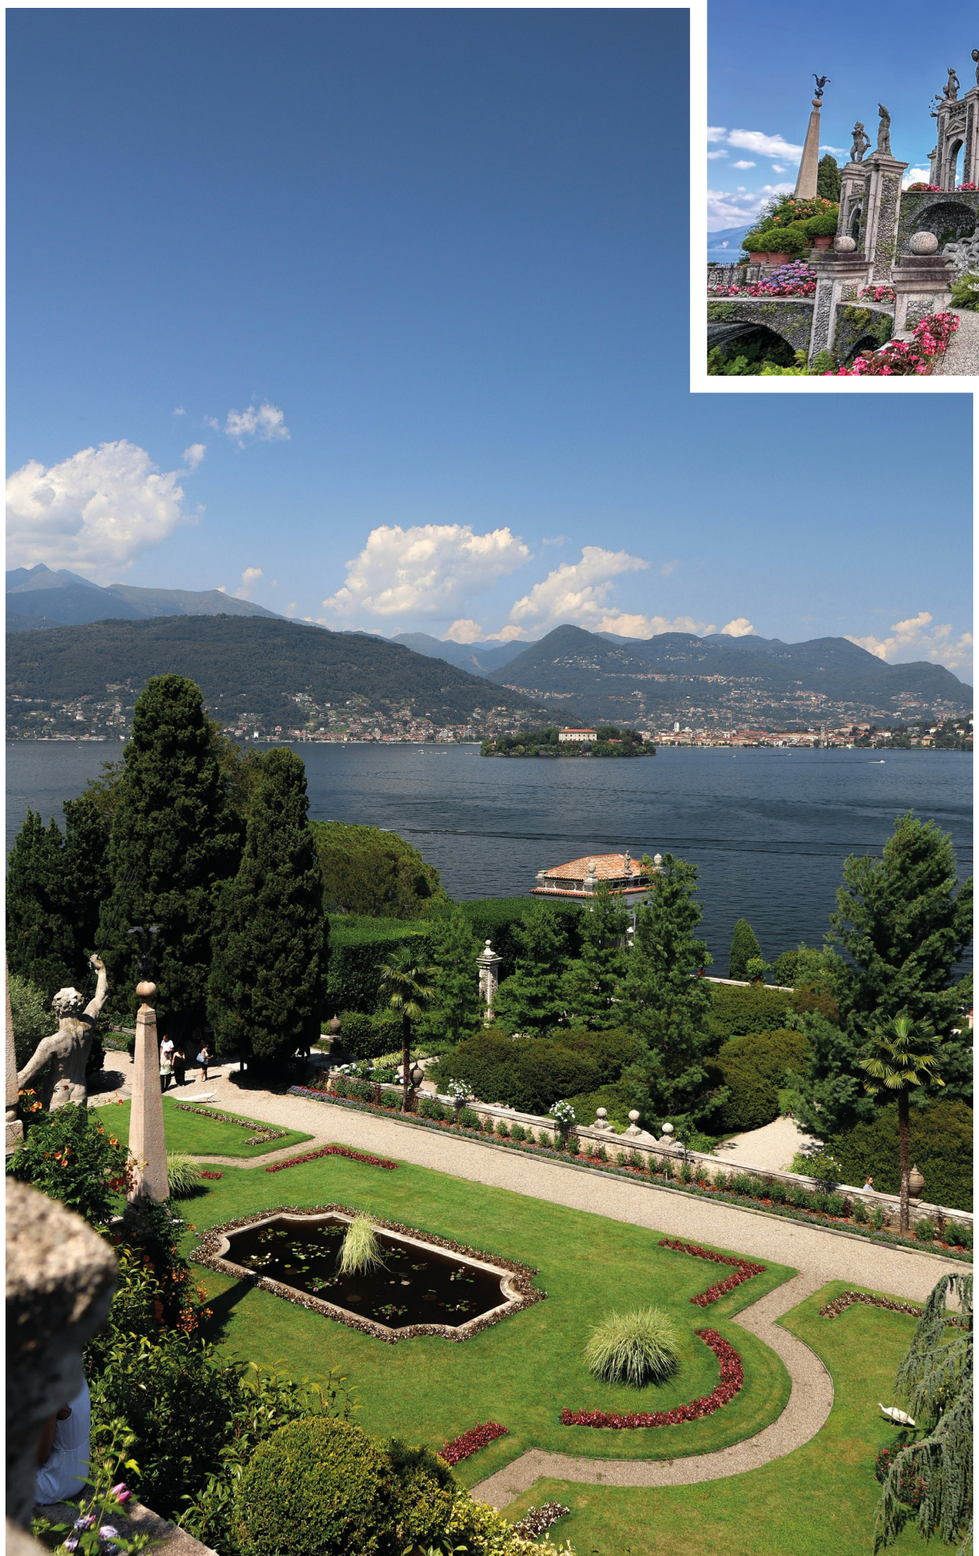
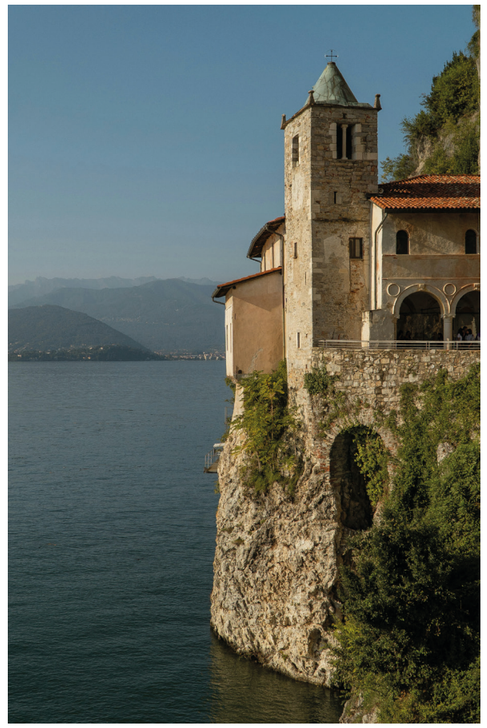
Lake Maggiore & the Borromean Islands

Grand gardens, historic islands and extraordinary views across the lakes.





Travel to Stresa or Baveno and set out on Lake Maggiore for a boat excursion to the Borromean Islands. Discover the palaces and gardens of Isola Bella and Isola Madre with a dedicated guide during opening hours, with lunch arranged on Isola dei Pescatori or at Piccolo Lago on nearby Lake Mergozzo. A visit to the lakeside hermitage of Santa Caterina del Sasso may also be included within the agreed route.

Alternatively, spend time exploring the botanical gardens of Villa Taranto with a dedicated guide. For a different perspective on the region, a scenic helicopter flight over the Monte Rosa massif may be arranged as an optional upgrade, subject to confirmation and a separate quotation.
