

Reschio

Reschio is a private estate in the Umbrian-Tuscan hills, centered on a millennial castle and surrounded by restored farmhouses and villas. Blending history, design, and nature, it offers an elegant yet relaxed countryside retreat, where craftsmanship and attention to detail create a unique and intimate atmosphere.

ROOMS

Castle Rooms & Suites

Rooms in the castle are individually designed, combining bespoke contemporary furnishings with antiques and local materials. Each room and suite reflects the estate's history and style, offering a warm and atmospheric setting with modern comforts.

Villas & Country Houses

The estate includes several restored villas and farmhouses scattered across the hills. These independent homes offer privacy, space, and freedom for families or groups, while maintaining the same elegance and attention to detail found in the castle accommodations.

AMENITIES

Outdoor swimming pools and expansive gardens for peaceful walks and relaxation.

Spa and wellness areas with massages, treatments, and quiet spaces for meditation.

Tennis courts, walking and cycling trails, and equestrian facilities with guided rides.

Cooking classes, picnics, artisan workshops, and immersive countryside experiences.

Lounges, terraces, and cozy corners throughout the estate, blending historic charm with modern design.

Personalized concierge services to curate bespoke experiences and ensure a seamless stay.

DINING

Dining at Reschio celebrates Italian countryside tradition with fresh, seasonal, and locally sourced ingredients:

Castle Restaurant: Refined cuisine served in the historic castle, combining traditional Italian flavors with elegant presentation.

Alle Scuderie: A more informal yet curated dining experience, set in the estate's natural surroundings, perfect for relaxed lunches or intimate dinners.

Additional spaces for cocktails, light meals, or poolside dining, designed to create memorable moments in a serene and elegant atmosphere.

Additional intimate spaces for cocktails, light meals, or poolside dining.