

The Metropole

Overlooking the Venetian Lagoon, Hotel Metropole is an eclectic and theatrical retreat just steps from St. Mark's Square. A temple of beauty housing precious art collections, it offers a seductive blend of period elegance and oriental charm for a truly sophisticated Venetian stay.

ROOMS

The hotel features a collection of uniquely themed rooms and suites, where Fortuny fabrics and antiques create a bridge between East and West:

Classic & Deluxe Rooms: Intimate and refined spaces featuring period furnishings and views of the citrus garden or the canal.

Junior Suites: Spacious accommodations with lounge areas and enchanting views over the lagoon or the Rio della Pietà.

Suite Damasco: A tribute to Venetian textile tradition with rich fabrics and an evocative atmosphere.

Suite degli Specchi: A bright and sophisticated suite characterized by antique mirrors and timeless elegance.

The Terrace Suite: An exclusive retreat featuring a private terrace overlooking the lagoon.

AMENITIES

Hotel Metropole offers a sensory journey through history, art, and wellness:

Metropole Spa: An intimate wellness sanctuary with a heated pool, hammam, and bespoke rituals in a setting of ancient artifacts.

Art Collections: A unique "museum-hotel" experience featuring private collections of antique fans, crucifixes, and curiosities.

Citrus Garden: A secret courtyard filled with jasmine and orange trees, offering a peaceful oasis in the heart of Venice.

Bespoke Services: Private water gate for direct arrivals, specialized concierge, and exclusive access to local cultural experiences.

DINING

The culinary offerings combine Venetian tradition with exotic influences in a dramatic, candlelit setting:

Orientalbar & Bistrot: A bohemian-chic space famous for its unique cocktails and fusion cuisine, where spices meet local lagoon flavors.

Orientalbar Garden: An outdoor haven among palms and orange trees, perfect for an al fresco aperitivo or a relaxed dinner during the warmer months.

Tea Ritual: A refined winter afternoon tradition featuring a vast selection of fine teas and artisanal Venetian pastries.

Met Restaurant: A prestigious setting for private events and gala dinners, defined by Murano glass and classic luxury.
