

Don Totu Dimora Storica

Don Totu is a secret 18th-century palazzo in the heart of San Cassiano. Once the residence of the noble Cito family's steward, it features a discreet facade that hides grand internal spaces and expansive terraces, offering the exclusive privileges of a historic Salento manor.

ROOMS

Rooms feature refined simplicity with Flamant furniture, Grottagle ceramics, and unique globetrotter finds. Each space respects original materials with bespoke linens and canopy beds. Accommodation options include:

Suites (Torretta, Corte, Don Totu): Spacious rooms (over 25 sqm) featuring private wardrobes and exclusive furnished terraces or courtyards.

Standard Room (Loggia): A large, welcoming room (over 20 sqm) with a double bed and authentic architectural charm.

Superior Room (Dependance): A comfortable and airy room (over 20 sqm) featuring a large private bathroom and elegant décor.

Quadruple Room (Camerini): Two spacious connected rooms (20 sqm each) with a double bed, twin beds, and a private terrace, ideal for families.
