

Palazzina Grassi

A luxury boutique hotel overlooking the Grand Canal in the San Marco district, Palazzina Grassi is the only hotel in Italy designed by Philippe Starck, offering an intimate and refined atmosphere with 25 rooms and suites.

ROOMS

Rooms and suites combine contemporary design with Venetian character, within a collection of 25 accommodations designed by Philippe Starck. Each space is elegant, bright, and defined by a distinctive contemporary style within a historic palazzo.

Rooms: Superior and Deluxe rooms offering intimate and refined stays, with contemporary materials and elegant interiors.

Suites: Junior Suites and Suites, including options with Grand Canal views or private terraces, offering more spacious environments and a distinctive residential feel.

GHouse: An independent three-level house, offering a more independent way to experience Venice, with exclusive benefits connected to the hotel.

AMENITIES

Palazzina Grassi offers services designed for comfort and a refined stay on the Grand Canal:

Private Pier on the Grand Canal:

Direct access to the hotel from the water.

The Terrace: A rooftop space overlooking Venice, designed for relaxation and social moments.

Blue Pavilion: A private and versatile event space, featuring a 12-meter indoor pool, garden entrance, and large modular interiors, designed for exclusive events, performances, and private gatherings.

DINING

Dining at Palazzina Grassi is centered around a contemporary Venetian experience across different spaces:

The Restaurant: Featuring a show kitchen, offering a modern approach to traditional cuisine.

The Lounge: An intimate space overlooking the Grand Canal, ideal for aperitifs and relaxed moments.

The Terrace: A rooftop setting for drinks and dining with views over the city.