

Palazzo Petrus

Palazzo Petrus is a refined boutique hotel set within a meticulously restored 15th-century palazzo in the historic centre of Orvieto, just steps from the Duomo. Here, historic architecture and contemporary design merge to create an intimate retreat where frescoes, stone walls, and elegant interiors tell stories of the past while offering modern comfort and personalised hospitality.

ROOMS

The hotel features nine individually designed rooms and suites that blend heritage elements with contemporary luxury, each offering a unique atmosphere and views over medieval rooftops or quiet courtyards. Accommodation options include:

Superior Rooms: Elegant rooms with refined finishes and city or courtyard views.

Deluxe Rooms: Spacious accommodations combining historic details with modern comfort.

Junior Suites: Suites with separate living space, perfect for extended stays.

Suites: Larger luxury suites with enhanced amenities and panoramic vistas over Orvieto.

Penthouse Suite: Exclusive top-floor suite with skyline views and premium features.

AMENITIES

Palazzo Petrus offers a range of services designed to elevate the guest experience:

Prime Location: Steps from the Duomo and within the heart of Orvieto's historic centre.

Bar & Lounge: Stylish common areas for drinks and relaxation.

Activities & Experiences: Curated walking tours, local wine tastings, guided excursions, cycling and artisan workshops.

Comfort & Services: Concierge assistance, Wi-Fi, private check-in, 24-h front desk, and parking options.

DINING

Dining at Palazzo Petrus highlights local Umbrian flavours and refined Italian cuisine:

Coro Ristorante: The hotel's on-site restaurant offers Italian and international dishes in a modern, romantic setting under historic vaults.

Gocce Bar & Bistrot: A relaxed space for light meals, aperitifs and drinks throughout the day
