

Villa di Piazzano

Villa di Piazzano is a refined historic residence set among the hills near Cortona. Originally built in the 15th century as a hunting lodge for Cardinal Silvio Passerini, the villa is surrounded by gardens and protected countryside, offering an atmosphere of timeless Tuscan elegance.

ROOMS

The estate offers a selection of elegant rooms and suites located in the historic villa and in the surrounding buildings, combining period charm with modern comfort. Accommodation options include:

Classic Rooms: Elegant rooms located in the Limonaia or in the historic villa.

Superior Rooms: Refined accommodations offering additional space and comfort.

Deluxe Rooms: Spacious rooms distributed across the villa and surrounding buildings.

Junior Suites: Generous suites overlooking the gardens or courtyard.

Suites: Exclusive accommodations with separate living areas and scenic countryside views.

Two-Bedroom Suite (Tabaccaia): A private two-level suite with garden and living space.

Grand Suite: The most prestigious accommodation, featuring panoramic views of the Tuscan countryside.

AMENITIES

Villa di Piazzano offers services designed to enhance relaxation and the experience of the Tuscan countryside:

Outdoor Pool & Gardens: A panoramic pool surrounded by landscaped gardens and countryside views.

Fitness & Leisure: Fitness area, walking routes, and e-bikes to explore the surrounding hills.

Experiences & Activities: Cooking classes, wine tastings, and guided excursions to nearby towns and wineries.

Guest Services: Concierge assistance, free Wi-Fi, room service, and complimentary parking.

DINING

Dining at Villa di Piazzano celebrates Italian culinary traditions and seasonal local ingredients:

L'Antica Casina di Caccia: The villa's main restaurant, serving authentic cuisine prepared with fresh local products and homemade pasta, with outdoor dining on a terrace overlooking the gardens.

Lounge Bar Ai Lecci: An elegant sunset bar set beneath centuries-old oak trees, offering panoramic views and a relaxed atmosphere.